East Bank Ink

The Weekly Paper for the East Bank

Est. 2020 | Thursday, August 20, 2020 | Issue #3

Newest Local Weekly Newspaper

Welcome to the East Bank Ink, a new weekly newspaper about us, our neighbors, and our neighborhood. We each love South Bend and care deeply about our neighborhood, your neighborhood, the East Bank. Together we invite you to join us on this journey to produce East Bank Ink. Initially this publication will be a single two-sided paper, with pages added as our neighborhood contributors write more. Thank you for reading—we will be back next week.

Self-Guided Art Walk

By Cathy Dietz

What is not to like about walking? It is free, it is easy to do, and it is easy on the joints. Do you need more incentive? Well, what if I told you we have a unique opportunity in the East Bank Village to not only get a good workout in, but to also lighten our mood and expand our minds? Visual art will do that. On our website we linked the map where I have noted several public art installations to explore in the East Bank Village. Just follow the purple art palettes. I hope to see you out and about enjoying a walk!

...story continues on page 2

East Bank Architecture

By Eddie Jurkovic

In this second installment of East Bank Architecture, the spotlight is on the LaSalle State Bank Building, current home of architecture firm Buccellato Design. This neoclassical building was designed by H. G. Christman and completed in 1921. Records indicate the LaSalle State Bank may have become insolvent during the Great Depression, closing in the 1930s. In 2014 the Buccellatos purchased the building and faithfully renovated and restored it to house their firm. Aimee Buccellato, quoted in a 2016 article from the South Bend

...story continues on page 2

Buy Nothing East Bank

By Caroline Shapcott

We have welcomed 42 new members to our group in the last two weeks. And it's no wonder—gifting is addicting! Large items passed from neighbor to neighbor this week include a Kobalt workbench, two exercise machines, and two electric snow blowers. Crystal shared her bountiful garden cukes, and Karen shared aloe vera pups. In an act of neighborly kindness, Fran helped remove and relocate baby mice from a neighbor's garage. And in an act of conservation, Janel offered a few ziplock bags so her

...story continues on page 2

...continued from page 1

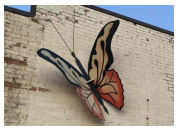

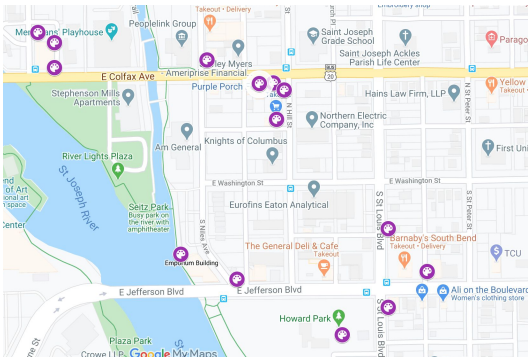

What's Next?

Volunteer! Want to publish a weekly comic? Share sports highlights from the local schools or pickup games? Visit EastBankInk.com or find us on Facebook to share your news and stories.

...continued from page 1

Tribune, stated "We understand the relationship between people and the built environment. We try to create spaces where people can live and work and play, and live the good life," she adds. "We certainly feel we've created a space that does that."

Events

Thursday, Aug. 20
6:30 p.m.
Darryl Buchanan's Soul R&B
Motown Thursday
Ironhand Vineyard

Friday, Aug. 21
6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
Pure Barre
Howard Park

Friday, Aug. 21
7:00 p.m.
Live Music by Lucas Miner
Ironhand Vineyard

Saturday, Aug. 22
7:00 p.m.
Chill Vibes with DJ Ethan
Ironhand Vineyard

...continued from page 1

neighbor in need didn't have to buy a whole box. If you haven't joined the fun yet, request at facebook.com/groups/BuyNothingEastBank or learn more about the international Buy Nothing Project at buynothingproject.org.

Tuesday, Aug. 25
6:00 p.m.
Yoga With Kimmi
Howard Park

Tuesday, Aug. 25
7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.
Yoga & Live Music
Howard Park

Wednesday, Aug. 26
6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
Outdoor Yoga
Howard Park

Thursday, Aug. 27
6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.
Zumba
Howard Park

East Bank Ink Organizers:
Carol Bradley, Grant Carlile, Cathy Dietz, Thomas Friesner, Carl Hetler, Eddie Jurkovic, David Matthews, Caroline Shapcott

PRSRT STD
ECRWSS
U.S.POSTAGE PAID
EDDM Retail

Local
Postal Customer